Greeting from SIRD, Jharkhand

SIRD, the apex training institute of the Government of Jharkhand for capacity building and skill development of different functionaries of the Rural Development Department and elected representatives, has been committedly carrying out its mandate since 1954, the year of its establishment. Over the years, with improvement in infrastructure and the adoption and integration of IT tools, there has been substantive enhancement in the methodology and quality of training imparted. Last year a total number of 105 trainings were conducted with a total participation of 4583 trainees.

Greater academic linkages and collaboration with our institutional partners and strengthening of research and documentation will form the cornerstone of our training activities this year. SIRD also proposes to widen its ambit to reach larger participants of various clientele groups through off-campus training. I am happy to present the training calendar for 2024-25 with a more holistic approach and selection of diverse and comprehensive areas.

I take this opportunity to appreciate and express my gratitude to the Department of Rural Development for their support and guidance. I am also thankful to the officers, faculties and staff members of SIRD for their sincere effort and valuable contribution.

Introduction to the Institute

The Institute

The institute was set up by the Ministry of Food, Agriculture, Community Development and Cooperation, Government of India in the year 1954 as one of the four DOTC (Development Officers Training Centers) established in the country so SIRD Ranchi claims to be one of the oldest in the country. In 1958, the institute's name was changed to "Orientation Training Center" (OTC) In the year 1967, the central government handed over the training center to the State of Bihar and renamed it as the "Community Development and Panchayati Raj Training Institute" (CDPRTI). In 1984, the center become an apex training institute for rural development in the State of Bihar and was renamed as the Bihar Institute of Rural Development (BIRD). On the creation of the State of Jharkhand, the institute became the State Institute of Rural Development (SIRD) in the year 2002.

The institute has four functions: training, research, fieldwork and dissemination of knowledge. It is the apex State-level institute providing training in Rural Development, Panchayati Raj and allied fields in the State. Its efforts are directed towards imparting training to officials and stakeholders in the Rural Development field, NGOs and PRIs. SIRD is financially supported by the Ministry of Rural Development, Govt. of India and the Department of Rural Development, Government of Jharkhand.

Vision

The vision of the institute is the overall development of Human Resources in rural areas through Capacity Building, Training, Research and Consultancy.

Mission

About Training

SIRD Jharkhand has achieved recognition as an apex Institute for Training & the Institute has carefully chosen the visiting faculties, consultants and resource persons who are knowledgeable and competent for providing training and guidance to participant from rural grass-root level. We provide intensive class room training using different modes, methodologies and technologies to suit different programme requirements. A right combination of presentations, lectures, case studies, role-playing, experience sharing, brainstorming, field visit & excursions, effectively used in the training process with emphasis on participatory and interactive learning components.

In the financial year 2023-24 we emphasized on engaging the best resource persons available in the relevant fields for training programmes. Our resource persons possess the requisite skills and knowledge along with experience to design & implement effective training. One of our most important achievements during this financial year was to successfully conduct 4-5 training programmes simultaneously in the campus. In the financial year 2023-24 we successfully conducted (105) training programmes including of MoRD sponsored programmes involving total 4583 participants.
